Carrie Adams Memorial Scholarship

"It is our desire to keep Carrie's memory alive by helping those who wish to further their education, both at the Battle Creek Area Catholic Schools and beyond. We hope that those who receive this scholarship will be inspired by Carrie's memory and always think of others; being generous with their time, talent and treasure."

-Chuck and Cheryl Adams

The Carrie Adams Memorial Scholarship was established by Carrie's parents, Chuck and Cheryl Adams, in Carrie's memory. Carrie graduated in 1991 following a distinguished academic and athletic high school career. This scholarship honors her memory and recognizes graduates for their character and concern for their fellow students. The scholarship recipient will have a distinguished academic record, and demonstrated leadership and service. The recipient shall possess sincere respect for their fellow students, as well as, a "concern for critters".

In 300-500 words, write an essay discussing how this scholarship will help you become a better Christian person.

Adam Drozdowski Memorial Scholarship

Adam Drozdowski, originally from Ohio, met his wife, Jo in Battle Creek. They were married at St. Philip Church in the early 1950s and were active members of the parish. You would look long and hard to find a bigger promoter of Catholic education than Adam Drozdowski. He supported the Battle Creek Area Catholic Schools in many forums, including serving as President of the School Board and the Catholic Athletic Association. Adam, or "Mr. D" may be best known as the Voice of the Fighting Tigers: he announced St. Philip football and basketball games for decades.

Adam's family proudly offers the Adam Drozdowski Memorial Scholarship as a tribute to a man who strongly believed in God, the importance of education, and helping others. The scholarship recipient will have involvement in athletics (as a player, team manager, trainer, or assistant), demonstrates interest in the community, serves as a role model to younger students, is hardworking, and encourages others.

In 300 words, write an essay discussing your favorite memory from attending St. Philip Catholic Central High School.

Pete Francisco Memorial Scholarship

"Pete's influence on the football program and our athletes was immeasurable, as was his heart. He gave everything he had for St. Philip football. He was especially proud of the 8-man team that made it to the playoffs." - Coaches Marc Pessetti & Dave Downey

The Pete Francisco Memorial Scholarship was established in 2014 by his wife, Jo and family members Channan and Chad Francisco (class of 1998), and Kelly (Fitzgerald) and Jason Francisco (class of 2000), to honor their husband and dad. Not only was Pete a St. Philip football coach, but he was also a coach for baseball and hockey as his boys were growing up. This scholarship is a lasting legacy to this wonderful man who mentored and helped many. This scholarship recognizes a graduate of St. Philip Catholic Central High School who is an athlete, has good attendance, is a respectful team player with a positive attitude, and a strong work ethic. This student will have demonstrated leadership ability and be active in community service.

In 300-500 words, write an essay explaining how being a member of a St. Philip Catholic Central athletic team has prepared you for your future endeavors. Be mindful of Coach Pete Francisco's character traits of having a positive attitude, being a team player and always giving 101%.

Sheila Guerra Memorial Scholarship

"... whether she played a part in their lives for a reason, a season, or a lifetime, Sheila touched their lives in such a way that they will never forget her. Thus her legacy will live on and continue to touch lives through her generous spirit." Anonymous

The Sheila Guerra Memorial Scholarship honors the memory of Sheila Guerra, former St. Philip teacher and volleyball coach. Prior to her death in 2006, Sheila established this scholarship fund for students to pursue their secondary education goals. The Sheila Guerra Memorial Scholarship recognizes a volleyball athlete senior of St. Philip Catholic Central High School for outstanding academic achievement and moral character who demonstrates a sincere desire to help the St. Philip community through volunteerism.
